

School of Medicine

Center for Molecular Medicine and Genetics

Division of Clinical Genetics

Interested in becoming a genetic counselor?

Attend our Genetic Counseling Graduate Program Open House

Two dates available:

Friday, June 21, 2019 OR Friday, August 2, 2019

- ⇒ Learn more about the genetic counseling profession
- ⇒ Discover the Wayne State Genetic Counseling Graduate Program
- ⇒ Meet practicing genetic counselors, students and program faculty
- ⇒ Develop strategies for a strong graduate school application

Tentative Agenda

- |                    |  |
|--------------------|--|
| 9:30-11:00  | Overview of the WSU Program and the admissions process |
| 11:00-12:15 | Genetic Counseling Case Presentations                  |
| 12:15-1:15  | Lunch with current WSU graduate students/recent alumni |
| 1:15-2:30   | Expanded Roles in Genetic Counseling                   |
| 2:30-3:30   | Genetic Counseling Practice                            |

Please RSVP and direct questions to:
Lydia Knight, M M/HRM at
(313) 577-6298 or lknight@med.wayne.edu

Hope to see you there!